About this cookie

policy This Cookie Policy explains what cookies are and how we use them, the types of cookies we use, i.e. the information we collect using cookies and how that information is used and how to control cookie preferences.

You may, at any time, change or withdraw your consent to the Cookie Statement on our website.

Your consent applies to the following domains: lightdefi.org

What cookies are?

Cookies are small text files used to store small information. They are stored on your device when the site is loaded into your browser. These cookies help us make the website work properly, make it more secure, provide a better user experience and understand how the site works and analyze what works and where it needs to be improved.

How do we use cookies?

Like most online services, our website uses primary and third-party cookies for a variety of purposes. Primary cookies are primarily necessary for the correct functioning of the website and do not collect any of your personally identifiable data.

The third-party cookies used on our website are primarily to understand how the site works, how you interact with our website, keeping our services secure, providing advertisements that are relevant to you and, in short, providing you with a better user and better experience and help expedite your future interactions with our site.

What types of cookies do we use?

Essential: Some cookies are essential for you to experience all the features of our website. They allow us to maintain user sessions and prevent any security threats. They do not collect or store any personal information.

Statistics: Statistics cookies help website owners understand how visitors interact with websites by collecting and disseminating information anonymously.

Marketing: Our website displays ads. These cookies are used to personalize the ads we show you to make them meaningful to you. These cookies also help us track the efficiency of these advertising campaigns.

The information stored in these cookies may also be used by third-party ad providers to build a profile about your interests and show you relevant ads on other websites. Without the use of these cookies, we will not be able to be more assertive in offering products and services contained on our website.

Functional: These are cookies that help certain non-essential functionalities on our website. These features include embedding content such as videos or sharing site content on social media platforms.

Preferences: These cookies help us store your settings and browsing preferences, such as language preferences, so you have a better and more efficient experience on future website visits.

How can I control cookie preferences?

You can use your internet browser to delete cookies automatically or manually. You can also specify that certain cookies may not be placed. Another option is to change your internet browser settings so that you receive a message each time a cookie is placed. For more information about these options, see the instructions in the Help section of your browser.

Please note that our website may not function properly if all cookies are disabled. If you delete cookies from your browser, they will be replaced after your consent when you visit our websites again.
